Outcome and Impact Reporting

- Impact reporting guidance (progressively by themes)

- CARE yearly impact report

Improve CARE's impact reporting at program level and strengthen the capacities required for this

- Define guidance on most appropriate methods for consolidating evidence of CARE's program impact, especially for priority themes of the emerging CARE 2020 Program Strategy
- Provide technical assistance to programs for M&E.

Yearly impact report

CARE yearly impact report

- Yearly impact report featuring the depth of our work (one theme every year).

- External stakeholder survey showing how our contribution and impact is viewed by others.

First CARE Global Impact Report focusing on GBV (April/May 2014)

CARE 2014 impact report

- 104 partners responded to survey about our GBV work.
- PIIRS team reviewed 46 GBV program evaluations.
- Report features evidence from 3 types of GBV programs:

  - Influencing norms that condone violence against women and girls
  - Supporting and improving prevention and protection services
  - Supporting legislation and its enforcement

Examples of impact report

Nepal: Discussions in Reflect Centers motivate women and men to discover discriminatory systems and practices as the barrier for their progress. Facilitating discussion about issues regarding discrimination against women, specifically about violence against women and girls, they learn about the laws against domestic violence. Group-based peer education and support groups from community members improve communication and motivate more equitable gender roles.

GBV at household level decreased by 30%.
(Proportion of women that reported non-occurrence of GBV events at household level increased from 60% in 2010 to 90% in 2012)
